

THE 2007 STATE OF OREGON TRAINING SUMMIT

Oregon's Training Community: Vital. Valuable. Visionary.

MAY 2, 2007 • SALEM, OREGON • NORTHWEST VITICULTURE CENTER AT CHEMEKETA

Exhibitors

American Society for Training and Development (ASTD) Cascadia Chapter

www.astdcascadia.org

With over 590 members, the Cascadia Chapter is the premier resource for training and development in Oregon and SW Washington. Members enjoy outstanding professional development and networking opportunities. Those opportunities are available for people interested in entering the field, those already in the field who want to improve their skills, and all who want to learn the latest trends in performance improvement, instructional design, and technology. From training specialists and organizational development consultants to training managers from large and small companies, our members represent a diverse group of public, non-profit, academic and business communities.

Professional Development Center at Portland State University

www.pdc.pdx.edu

The Professional Development Center at Portland State University has been serving business and individual in Oregon for more than 25 years. We offer public courses and programs in a variety of subjects tailored for the needs of working professionals, in areas such as project management, human resources management, healthcare management, multimedia, and information technology. We also bring courses and programs onsite to organizations throughout the region, customizing instruction to fit the needs of our clients. Find out more about us at www.pdc.pdx.edu.

Planet Productions

www.planetproductions.com

Planet Productions is an Oregon-based custom e-learning development company. Planet is collaborating with DHS developing a series of online courses on the topic of emergency preparedness. Planet Productions provides strong instructional design for e-learning, visual presentation and interactivity to engage learners, strong project management and technical expertise to ensure programs work with agency learning management systems and other technical infrastructure. Its process is very collaborative and works closely with agency subject matter experts.

Five Stars International, Ltd.

www.fivestarsintl.com

Five Stars International, Ltd. offers leadership development and coaching and mentoring services, including Fred Miller's highly regarded Lessons of Leadership workshop. It is said that experience can be a great teacher, but some lessons are learned too late. That does not need to be the case. In Lessons of Leadership, thirty years of management experience in the public and private sectors are distilled into basic principles of effective leadership that will enable any aspiring or experienced manager become more successful.